

association violating this Section, said suit to be instituted in any court of this State having appropriate jurisdiction, and such fine when recovered, as aforesaid, shall be paid without any deduction whatever, one-half thereof to the informer and the balance thereof to be paid into the public school fund of the State of Maryland.

See art. 38, sec. 3 as to abolition of informer's fees.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 264. 1912, sec. 326. 1906, ch. 174.

265. Every railroad corporation owning, controlling or operating a railroad in this State, which charges a fare of more than two cents per mile for a first-class straight passenger ticket, shall keep for sale mileage books of two classes, the first having five hundred, and the other one thousand coupons, each coupon for one mile, attached thereto, entitling the holder thereof to travel on the railroad line or lines, owned, controlled or operated by such railroad until all of said coupons are used up, for which such railroad corporation shall charge a sum not to exceed two cents per mile.

See secs. 270, 271 & 383.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 265. 1912, sec. 327. 1906, ch. 174.

266. Such railroad corporations shall not charge or receive for a mileage book containing five hundred such coupons more than the sum of ten dollars, and for a mileage book containing one thousand such coupons not more than the sum of twenty dollars; and such mileage books shall be kept for sale by such railroad corporations at every ticket office of such corporations authorized to do business for them, and such mileage book or books shall be delivered to the applicant immediately upon application therefor, and the payment of the price legally demandable therefor.

As to tariff schedules, see sec. 370; as to the determination of when rates are just and reasonable, see sec. 381; as to freight rates on inter-state traffic, see sec. 395. See also sec. 213.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 266. 1912, sec. 328. 1906, ch. 174.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 267. 1912, sec. 329. 1906, ch. 174.

268. There shall be no stipulation, agreement or condition required by said railroad corporation before it will issue such mileage books, that said mileage books shall become forfeited or null and void by the accidental loss of the same, and said loss shall not render the same forfeited or null and void; and there shall be no limitation of time in which such mileage books shall be good, but the same shall be good until all coupons attached thereto have been used.
